

Run Report

Forster Overnight 2013

A couple of words sum up the weekend – Bloody Rain!!

We met Saturday morning at Motto Farm in the rain, we were surprised that only Josh opted to leave the torrie at home, we travelled in heavy rain up the Pacific Hwy and stopped at Nabiac Hotel for lunch, we were a bit worried that they only had 1 chef turn up as the others were flooded in, a call was made to the caravan park who told us that the road was still open and the park not flooded yet.

Dave & Laurel led the way to the caravan park and we were stopped by the SES at road flooding telling us of the hazard, seeing Dave make it through the deep floodwater gave the rest of us confidence that we could make it also.

We checked into the Wallamba River Caravan Park, but there was no river only a lake to be seen, everyone was so lucky to have water views!! The boys had a large upstairs unit so we all gathered there for the afternoon watching the V8's and enjoying a drink & nibblies.

For dinner, most ordered pizza from the on-site take-away shop and then we gathered back at the boys unit to be entertained by Dougo's "Torana Talk" and having a few more drinks together.

Sunday morning was still overcast & drizzling rain so we decided to pack up and head for home, the closer we got to home the weather improved.

So, despite the natural disaster that was happening around us we had a great weekend together, we'll definitely have to plan another weekend at this caravan park.

I think we're all home now drying out the torries!
