Lost in the 50s Museum

& Holmesville Hotel

On a beautiful morning, club members arrived at the “Lost in the 50’s Museum” at Cameron Park, we were joined by the NSW GTR/XU1 club and Brock Commodore Owners Assoc and put on a very colourful display in the forecourt. The museum opened at 9.30 to the public and once inside everyone was amazed at the collection of vehicles and memorabilia from the 50’s era, the museum was well set out and there was so much to see.

Outside the museum a food van was set up and you could sit in an old restored tram carriage to have morning tea, a DJ was playing 50’s music and then they got kids & adults involved playing with hoola hoops, the Moof Man (Pete) got some moves going with his hoop.

About midday we headed for a 5 min drive to Holmesville Hotel for a bistro lunch, we had some beers & lunch, Dougo continued with his Torana Talk (disappointed Jennifer Hawkins wasn’t in town to interview) and slowly people started to head for home.

In summing up, it was another great club day out and we must thank Phil Walmsley (member of both Sydney car clubs) for inviting us and we hope they had a great day as well. Thanks also to Glenn Jennings owner of “Lost in the 50s Museum” who promoted today’s open day as “Aussie Muscle vs USA Classic”.

For the record –

39 Total Attendance

Thanks
